

A RESOURCE FOR BRYANT UNIVERSITY ALUMNI

Let Your Ties to the Past Become the Road to Your Future

Friendship is unnecessary, like philosophy, like art... It has no survival value; rather it is one of those things that give value to survival. – C.S. Lewis, author (1898 – 1963)

Whether you graduated last year or 50 or more years ago, you have probably thought about someone you went to Bryant with. It may have been because you moved to the city you know he lived in or because she had a job at a company you are now interested in working for. But whatever the case, you didn't try to track him down because you know you would never be able to find him after all this time...right?

Bryant University is making it easy for its alumni to reconnect with each other, and all it takes is a few clicks of a mouse.

Online Alumni Directory

You went to school with a guy named Michael who was really into snowboarding. It would be great to get his perspective on a relevant new product line your company is launching, but you can't remember his last name. You can't find your yearbook...how can you find him?

field and your graduating class in the Preferred Class Year field.

- Find graduates who are working in the marketing field by just selecting Marketing/Advertising from the Career Category field.
- Get a list of alumni who are working in New York by choosing that state from the Business State field.

As a Bryant alumnus/a, you have access to a network of more than 38,000 fellow graduates through the online directory on Bryant's Web site. Sometimes, though, you want to focus on the people you graduated with: the sisters in your sorority, the guys from one of your classes, your teammates and roommates. Finding – and staying in

- Share news about your own accomplishments
- Post photos of weddings, children, and informal alumni gatherings
- Help us find "lost" classmates – alumni for whom Bryant does not have a current home address
- Access links to alumni resources, such as regional alumni networks, career services, and more

With Reunion just a few months away – September 15-17 will be

One of the first resources on your list should be Bryant's Online Alumni Directory. The advanced search is easy to use and lets you narrow your search based on a number of parameters. You could:

- See a list of all the Michaels in your graduating class by typing "Michael" into the First Name touch with – your Bryant friends is about to get a whole lot easier. Class Pages, a new Photo Gallery and online Class Notes sections have been added as features to Bryant's online community to help facilitate information exchange among your Bryant classmates: For instance, you can:

here before you know it – be sure to check out your class Web site for the latest information. And don't forget to update your online alumni directory listing so your classmates can find you. Visit www.bryant.edu. Click on Alumni and Online Directory to get started.

The VIs – Sisters at Heart

2006 IS AN IMPORTANT YEAR: soon I will be 50 and with that occasion I will also celebrate over 30 years of friendship with seven of the finest, most amazing women I know: Michele (Maisano) Genden, Karen (Cappetta) Ehrens, Sonja Valentine, Cassie (Bourque) Manton, Sue (Arremony) Brochu, Kathy (Berriman) Carlucci, and Sheila Curran; ALL better known as "The VIs".

From the moment I set foot in my suite on the 3rd floor of Dorm 6 in September of 1974 I knew the girls in my suite were special. We all became instant friends and we have been friends ever since. We've been there for each other through break-ups, marriages, divorce; miscarriages, births, infertility, and adoption; sickness and health; and we've buried the parents who afforded us the opportunities to attend Bryant.

We became sisters without needing to pledge; we have remained sisters out of the love we have for each other. We still consider ourselves as "The VIs" and we feel blessed to be able to do so with such pride and love and commitment to each other.

At least once, if not twice a year we get together for a weekend and celebrate our friendship, our VI family, our roots, times gone by and times yet to come. We laugh, we cry, we are terribly silly, and often painfully loud; but we're the VIs and we've always been quite comfortable in our skin.

Bryant provided us with a gift of friendship and family and for that I, (and I think I speak for all the VIs), will be eternally grateful.

With a megaphone full of fond memories.

Attention All Golfers!

The 3rd Annual President's Golf Tournament will be held on Wednesday, September 27, 2006, at the Newport Country Club.

Your fee of $625 per player ($2,500 per foursome) gets you a premier gift, a box lunch, favors at each hole, open bar and hors d'oeuvres at a reception following, prizes for closest to pin and longest drive, and a cash prize for hole-in-one. You'll also have the opportunity to bid on many great prizes at silent and live auctions – including days of golf at other great country clubs. And, don't forget, your fee includes 18 holes at one of the oldest and most prestigious courses in the United States – site of the June 2006 Women's Open and the 1995 U.S. Amateur won by Tiger Woods.

All proceeds from the event support the President's Scholarship Fund at Bryant University. In the last two years, this golf tournament has raised more than $95,000 to support Bryant students.

You can choose to bump up your support with a $5,000 Scholarship

Sponsorship. In addition to the perks above, the Scholarship Sponsorship includes a foursome, special recognition and visibility through signage at the country club and in the tournament brochure, and an invitation to the Gala Alumni Leadership dinner at Bryant with President Machtley on Homecoming/Reunion weekend as well as four tickets to the Homecoming/Reunion football game.

You or your company may also purchase pin flags for $500 or tee signs for $150.
